

CANDIDATE'S ELECTION DAY EXPENDITURES REPORT

(to be filed by a candidate or his principal campaign committee)

This report is required to be filed by all candidates who are required to file campaign finance disclosure reports, even if no election day expenditures were made. The report is due not later than 10 days after the primary election, and, again, not later than 10 days after the general election if the candidate participates in the general election. This form is used to report payments by the candidate or his political committee (1) for advertising that is broadcast or published on election day (2) for the services of election day workers, and (3) to organizations for election day activities in support of the candidate. NOTE: This report is required in addition to all other required reports. Therefore, the expenditures reported on this report must be reported in subsequent "Candidate's Reports" for this election.

Gentlemen:

Enclosed herewith is the John W. (Billy) Pickett Campaign Committee Candidate's Election Day Expenditures Report".

This report includes "Schedule B: Election Day Workers", on Page 3 of the report.

The instructions include the following: "The following information must be provided for each individual to whom an expenditure was made for services performed on election day."

Out of an abundance of caution, and following our standard practice of advising you of all information, I have included the names of nine (9) persons who were in fact issued checks on October 5, 2002, and who in fact performed campaign-related services on that day.

However, that is not the entire situation. All of these people had been working on the campaign for quite some time, including election day, it so happened that the Committee paid them the sums set opposite each name on October 5, 2002. This certainly was not restricted to "services on election day", and I do not know how to separate it.

If you desire any additional information regarding this matter, I will be more than happy to cooperate.

Yours very truly,

John S. Pickett, Jr.
Committee Treasurer
